The Prosperity Community Fair a Great Success

Large Crowds Attend the Fair and Much Interest Manifested—A List of the Prize Winners—Other News.

Prosperity, Nov. 20.—The largest crowd that has ever assembled in Prosperity gathered here Thursday and Friday for the community fair. From every standpoint this fair was a grand success. There were hundreds of exhibits which revealed as nothing else could the wonderful natural resources of Nos. 9 and 10 townships.

Thursday morning at 10 o'clock the fair association was called to order by its president, Dr. G. Y. Hunter, and after a few introductory remarks, Mayor M. C. Morris was introduced, who made the welcome address. Short addresses were made by Miss Edith Parrott, state agent of home demonstration work, Prof. S. J. Derrick of Newberry college, Dr. C. T. Wyche and Hon. T. A. Dominick.

Thursday afternoon Mr. P. W. Moore, Laurens county demonstrator, explained the working of a community creamery before a large audience and at the conclusion of his interesting talk it was unanimously adopted that Newberry county should have a community creamery. The capital stock for this creamery has already been guaranteed.

Friday was the banner day in which there were over 4,000 people to visit the fair. Probably the most interesting feature of the day was the parade of 600 school children from the town hall to the school grounds where Hon. J. E. Swearingen, state supt. of education delivered the principal address. County Supt. of Education Chas. P. Barre also made a short talk.

Fourteen schools out of fifteen in the community were represented with booths which were a credit to their community. Prosperity school won first prize, St. Lukes, second, Saluda, third. Honorable mention was made of Monticello, Big Creek and Hunter De Walt.

Mr. Hare, state poultry husbandman, Mr. Shealy and Mr. Patrick demonstrators of Lexington and Saluda counties respectively were here and rendered helpful service to the officials of the fair. They also assisted in judging exhibits. There were many out of county visitors and they all voted that it was the best fair of its kind they had ever seen held in the State. Our county demonstrators, Mr. T. M. Mills and Miss Willie Mae Wise were untiring in their efforts to make the fair a success. The following premiums were awarded:

GOOD VAUDEVILLE BY NEWBERRY BOYS

Manager Wells shared the proceeds of the picture show at the Opera House Friday night with the Calvin Crozier chapter, U. D. C. In addition to the fine program of pictures seven couples of the local talent gave a good vaudeville exhibition, all of which highly amused the very large crowd of people who attended. The vaudeville entertainment consisted of a song by the "Very Rev." Whitney Purcell, (Ned) who was featured as the star of the aggregation, a sermon by the "very reverend" gentleman, and a cake walk by the fourteen. Ned was the leader and director of the troupe. The song brought down the house and the sermon kept it down. The "very reverend" added to his song by a little graceful dancing, which many in the audience were not aware that he was capable of giving with his well known gift as a black face comedian. He made a great hit and was encored. After the laughable sermon came the cake walk, which was a source of much merriment to the audience, especially to the many young ladies present, who seemed to be highly tickled at the costumes and the acting of the young men assuming the female characters in the cast. Most of the couples were hard to be traced by the general audience, so complete were the disguises of the black faces and the "rigging up." The following are the names of the couples and their stage cognomens, the second names of the couples being the "Misses" in the cake walk:

Dr. John B. Setzler—George Washington.
Malcolm Johnstone—Jennie Lily White.

Nicholas Holmes—Jacob Fuller.
Metts Fant—Susie Green.

Ferd Scurry—Sam Lampert.
John Floyd—Susie Pusheart.

Jess Mayes—Noah Little Fish.
Owen Holmes—Ann Catfish.

Richard Floyd—Blue Pete Da Walt.
Dr. E. E. Stuck—Eugenia Sharp.

Benedict Mayer—Nat Sealy Bark.
Ren Mayes—Marandy Ray.

Dave Caldwell—Cupid Cushion Foot.
John Peterson—Sal Sumphkin.

After all the couples had exhibited themselves the "Very Rev. Whitney Purcell," acting as judge, awarded the cake to Cupid Cushion Foot and Sal Sumphkin, he having decided that they had received the lion's share of applause. However, all the couples got their share of the liberal applause of the audience. There was no kick coming at the decision of the judge, who seemed to be president, secretary, general manager and treasurer of the combination—with the cake.

Mr. Tarle Hipp at the piano, kept the boys in live with his fine playing.

The door receipts amounted to $50.00. It takes a "right smart" crowd to raise that amount at 5 and 10 cents admission; and it shows that it pays to put on an entertainment at popular prices. The Calvin Crozier chapter is ahead.

Cutting Scrape.

In consequence of a cutting scrape at 12 o'clock Wednesday night at the Newberry cotton mills, Mr. John Henry Wesson was arrested by Policeman Whitaker and put under a $50 bond for his appearance in the recorder's court as soon as the wounded man shall be able to attend the trial. Mr. Wesson cut Mr. Lee Sanford very severely with a knife. Dr. Houseal is attending Mr. Sanford, who was cut in the right temple and the face, the gash being six inches long, and received a deep stab in the left shoulder near the joint, extending to the ribs, besides a cut across the abdomen. The latter cut while deep did not, however, enter the abdominal cavity. The testimony as to the difficulty will be brought out at the trial. Mr. Sanford, although pretty badly used up, is doing very well.

It is good news here that the Newberry boys will soon return home from the Mexican border. Among them are Guy Brown, Humbert Aull, Earle and Glenn Bullock, Carol Dennis, Henry Chappell and others.

Candidates Fighting Hard As Campaign Nears the End

Rewards For Part Efforts Depend Upon Effort Put Forth Now—Just 12 Working Days Left—Pay No Attention to the "Calamity Howler" but Work Hard the Remaining Two Weeks and Joy Ride Later.

Now that The Herald and News Great Circulation Campaign has narrowed down to two short weeks—twelve working days—the campaign for the honors and the valuable prizes will increase with every hour struck by Father Time, until the last few frenzied hours—hours of nervous activity, suspense and wonderment.

These two weeks will show the survival of the fittest, the reward of the persevering, the honors of the successful ones, the happiness of their friends and the enthusiasm of the public. The twelve working days will develop another side of human nature; the ones who acknowledge defeat; their hopes and ambitions cast to the winds, their nerve gone, their failure to secure the prize of their choice.

It is the parting of the way; the persevering, on to success and others down to defeat.

This is the time the candidates will hear from the "Calamity Howler"—Ne'er Do Well—the pessimist. The Calamity Howler has never succeeded in anything. Doesn't want to succeed. He is a sluggard in his brain. He does not want to see anyone succeed. He plots, he lies, he flatters, he invents, he ridicules. Rumors and absurdities are his stock in trade.

He often trades. Yesterday he traded, today he will trade. Tomorrow he will seek you and do all he can to discourage you and will try to keep you from being successful, because he has always been a miserable failure himself. His diseased brain will see that you are not successful, if you listen to him. He tells you how many votes some one else has, how many some other candidate will get, that its all fixed, that he knows who will get all the prizes.

Yesterday he held a "Dance of the Fates." He met a candidate. She had many subscriptions to collect. "Why you have no chance. So and so has ten two-year subscriptions." Miss Candidate listened—she heeded, she quit. It's no use. I am beaten, and the party that the Calamity Howler referred to did not have enough subscriptions to win a package of tooth

Kibler-Sligh.

Married, by the Rev. Gobe Smith, at the O'Neal Street Methodist church parsonage, on Sunday, November 12, 1916, at 6 o'clock p. m., Miss Maude Kibler and R. O. Sligh. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kibler, of West End. The groom is from Ebenezer, and is at present the acceptable clerk at the store of Daltch Brothers in the city.

Death of Mr. Harling.

Mr. John Isaac Harling died at his home in the Oakland cotton mill village on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock of apoplexy, and his body was shipped Monday afternoon on the 3:38 C. N. and L. train to Graniteville. Mr. Harling was 72 years old. He leaves a widow and five grown children.

Death of an Infant.

The four-months-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith died at their home in the Mollohon mill village on Sunday morning at 6 o'clock and the body was shipped to Columbia on the 7:53 C. N. and L. train Monday morning.

Mr. J. Y. McFall sent four of his beautiful White Mundane pigeons to the Georgia State fair at Macon, and won six prizes on the four birds. The Georgia fair officers know fine and pretty pigeons when they see them.

Some interesting matter is unavoidably crowded out until the next issue of the paper.

Mimnaugh is still running his big ads in The Herald and News, which you must not overlook.

Don't fail to read the ads of O. and T. E. Salter in this issue of The Herald News, the people's paper.

Summer Brothers company ought to build a trolley line from Newberry to the Laurens county line.

We had the promise of an account of the football game in Augusta last week when the Newberry boys came out first best by long odds. But it didn't come.

Old Rooze was busy in town Saturday night.

The friends of the late Wade J. Denny will regret to hear of his death. He will be remembered in Newberry as the editor of the Clinton azette in its palmy days. He was a warm picks, much less an automobile. It worked. It will work again.

Now young lady are you going hand in hand with the Calamity Howler, or are you going to walk alone, and secure every subscription and vote possible during the next two weeks. It is important; follow your own inclination and be numbered among the successful ones. These last two weeks will make a years difference.

In two weeks The Herald and News Circulation Campaign will be at an end, and no matter how much of a campaign you have made, there are still a large number of subscriptions to be gathered, and they will beyond doubt, have the most vital bearing on your final standing.

Don't give up the ship until you are counted out by the judges. Never mind this talk about what the other fellow has in reserve; remember you, and you alone, know how many votes you have and it is impossible for any one else to know unless you tell it yourself.

In the meantime get all the subscriptions you can by Saturday. Help to make Saturday the banner day of the campaign. You are going to need every vote you can get, and you are going to need the assistance of every friend who has promised to help you, so get all of your intimate friends to pledge you so many subscriptions and those who fully realize this and be governed accordingly, will be those who will be happiest when the campaign is over.

Remember every Renewal Subscription you secure this week will give you 5,000 extra votes.

The campaign manager again warns all candidates not to believe all these scare stories about some candidates having enough votes up their sleeves that would choke a Rhinoceros.

Believe nothing you hear and only half you see, but work hard each day and secure every available subscription possible by Saturday night.

Remember, absolutely and finally, there will not be any extra votes offered the last three days of the campaign.

hearted, genial man and we were always glad to see him when he visited this city.

Mr. Chas. P. Barre acted as a groomsmen at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Voigt and Rev. C. J. Shealy in Columbia last Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt, and entered the church on the arm of her brother, Prof. Gilbert P. Voigt.

Making a Name For Newberry

If anyone should doubt the growth, advancement and prosperity of Newberry he has but to consider such facts as the trade by the Exchange bank with Mr. George S. Moyer for a lot on the northeast corner of Main and College streets for $15,000, the building of a $4,500 crematory on the power house lot, the quick subscribing of $4,000 capital stock for a creamery, the buying of the Glasgow place in the country by the Summer Brothers company for $22,500; not to mention the planning of the building of a parsonage of the A. R. P. congregation, etc.

Shell Coated Trees.

Whole forests may be seen coated with shelly substances on the continent of New Holland. These incrustations are supposed to arise from decompositions of shellfish, which, transported by the winds, are deposited in the form of dust on trees and plants.

Past the Danger Point.

"How is your husband getting along with his riding lessons?"
"Very well, indeed. The children are allowed to watch him now."—New York Times.

Something Similar.

"Building a castle in the air?"
"No; I am perfecting a new sort of dirigible and making a few flights of imagination."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Strenuous.

"He used to be a straight enough young chap. What made him get crooked?"
"Trying to make both ends meet, I believe."—Exchange.
